

NORTHSIDE
ACHIEVEMENT
ZONE

RESULTS NAZ

Anchor Schools

Jan 21, 2016

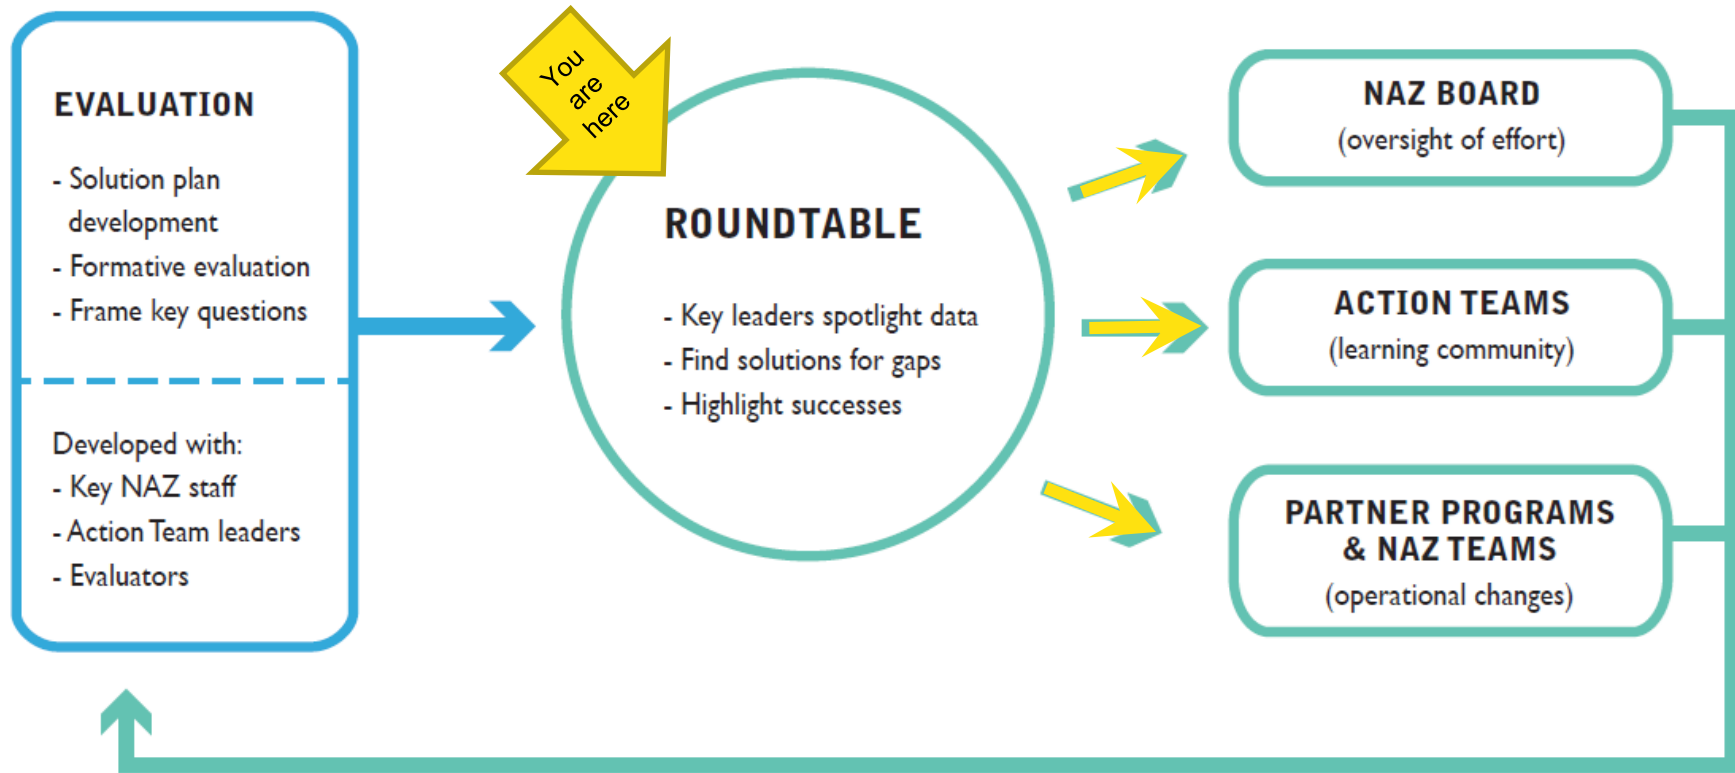

ONE
NAZ

GENERAL OUTLINE

- Table introductions
- Results NAZ
- Anchor Schools
- How are scholars better off?
- Targeted solutions
- Key Questions
- What happens next?

Table Introductions

RESULTS NAZ

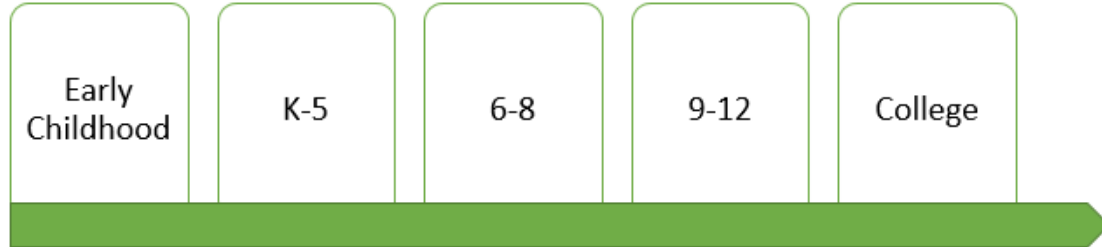

KEY LEARNINGS are captured and implemented through the ongoing internal evaluation process. Full evaluation repeated annually.

ANCHOR SCHOOLS GOAL

- Anchor Schools

All scholars enrolled in NAZ Anchor Schools demonstrate grade-appropriate skills, beliefs, and academic outcomes to be college-ready.

- Part of an Education Pipeline from 0-College

How are families better off in relation to this goal?

SY2014/2015 MCA OUTCOMES

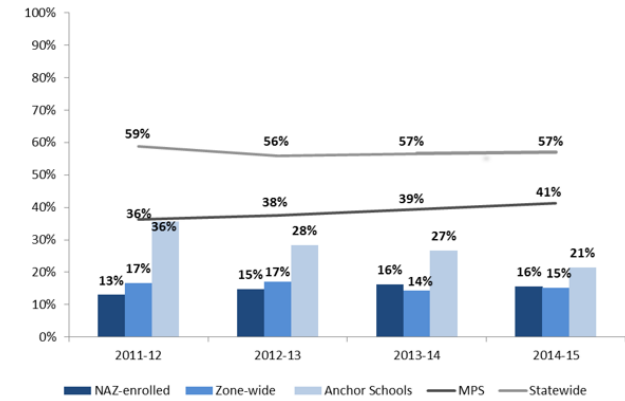

1. Fall 2014 kindergarten readiness (literacy)

5. MCA reading proficiency, grades 3-5

12. MCA math proficiency, grades 6-8

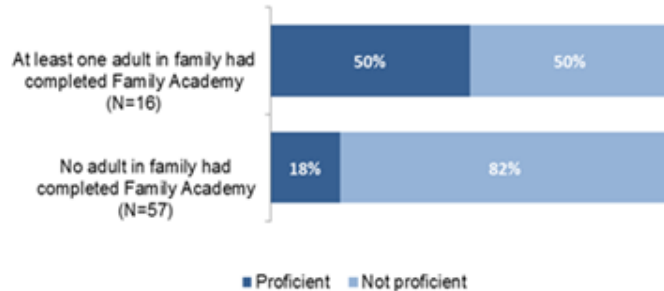

Solutions

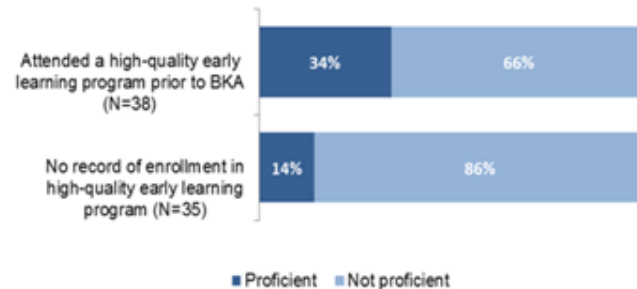

EARLY CHILDHOOD

- More scholars prepared for Kindergarten with these supports:
 - Parent education (NAZ Family Academy)
 - High quality EC programming

2014-15 BKA literacy proficiency by
Family Academy completion

2014-15 BKA literacy proficiency by enrollment in high-quality early learning program

ALIGNING STRATEGIES, LAYERING SOLUTIONS

2014-15 MCA math proficiency by type and combination of NAZ services, Grades 3-5

ALIGNED STRATEGIES: NASIR ELLIS

- A story about aligned engagement and layered solutions in practice

Key Questions

KEY QUESTION

- How is your school activating NAZ strategies and partners working together in your space?
 - What are the clear examples of value add in this relationship?

KEY QUESTION

- Results from layered solutions implies a central role for anchor schools in the NAZ strategy. How do the schools here collectively impact the most scholars possible as the core of a Northside academic strategy?

KEY QUESTION

- What does mutual accountability look like in this partnership?
 - How do we define and measure shared outcomes to achieve academic success for all scholars?

KEY QUESTION

- How have schools successfully addressed challenges of co-located and co-managed staff?

RESULTS NAZ

KEY LEARNINGS are captured and implemented through the ongoing internal evaluation process. Full evaluation repeated annually.