

Chad Schwitters, Executive Director, Urban Homeworks

Chad has been the Executive Director of Urban Homeworks, Inc. since 1999. In his 17 years at UHW, he has provided vision and inspiration. Within our walls, he provides direction to the leadership team, imagines new approaches to fund development strategies, cultivates new organizational relationships, and lays the foundation for the mission. Outside of our walls, Chad is actively involved in community leadership efforts that both support and inform our work, including the Northside Achievement Zone, the Metropolitan Consortium of Community Developers, the Local Initiatives Support Corporation, and the Home Prosperity Fund. Chad has a B.A. in Finance from Bethel University.
